THE REGISTERED FUND OF THE ROYAL AIR FORCE REGIMENT

RAF REGIMENT PICTURE PRINTS

Version : 2016-2

The RAF Regiment's CENTURION Fund offers a number of high-quality Limited Edition lithographic print versions of recent oil paintings by the renowned military artists – including the Corps Artist, Stuart Brown - that were commissioned by the Corps to commemorate a number of events in its history, including that of the RAF Armoured Car Companies. All pictures are on high-quality art board and are supplied in a cardboard tube. They are offered for sale un-mounted and all profits go to the RAF Regiment CENTURION Fund to support its aims and ambitions. Mailing will be by Royal Mail Recorded (ie 'Signed-For') Delivery and UK/BFPO costs are included in the price, except for any framed versions; these and Overseas (ie EU and Rest-of-the-World) postage will attract a supplementary postage and insurance charge reflecting the increased cost.

AIR POWER ENABLED

By Stuart Brown

The picture depicts a post-action event on Operation HERRICK, the UK's contribution to the NATO-led International Security Assistance Force's combat operations in Afghanistan, which took place during the period 2002-14. A degree of artistic license has been exercised to reflect the wide range of vehicles and equipment used in the Theatre over the 12-year period, but all those who fought in the campaign will be able to identify with the image and events on the ground. With a brief description of the Campaign.

Image Size: 60.5 x 35.0 cms. Limited Edition of 250 prints.

Price: £70.00

HABBANIYA - 2 MAY 1941 By Stuart Brown

The picture records the action on 2 May 1941 when, under effective fire from an Iraqi brigade of some 9,000 men on the plateau overlooking the besieged RAF station at Habbaniya, three Rolls-Royce armoured cars of No 1 Armoured Car Company RAF recovered the ground crew and pilot of a Wellington bomber after being hit by anti-aircraft fire while on a bombing run over the Iraqi positions. As a result of the RAF Armoured Car Company's action, the Iraqi forces were deterred from taking the airfield and failed to capitalise on their numerical advantage; the siege of RAF Habbaniya effectively ended that day. With a brief description of the action. Image Size: 57.5 x 36.5 cms. Limited Edition of 250 prints.

Price: £55.00

THE QUEEN'S COLOURS By Stuart Brown

The picture depicts the event when Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II, presented the Royal Air Force and the Royal Air Force Regiment with their new Queen's Colours during the Royal Air Force's 90th Anniversary Parade at RAF Fairford in 2008. On parade as the Escort Squadrons are The Queen's Colour Squadron (No 63 Squadron RAF Regiment) and No 34 Squadron RAF Regiment. The key Corps members involved can be easily identified. Image Size: 68.0 x 47.0 cms. With a brief description of the event. Limited Edition of 350 prints.

Price: £55.00

AL WAKI By Stuart Brown

The picture depicts the furious firefight that occurred in the Al Waki Market in Basrah, Iraq, in August 2007, in which a Flight of No1 Squadron RAF Regiment was engaged by some 50 Iraqi insurgents. The two-hour 'contact' left at least 16 insurgents dead, but the price was high as Senior Aircraftman Martin Beard, the Section light-Machine Gunner, was killed in action while providing covering fire for his comrades. His Section Commander, Corporal David Hayden, evacuated Beard over 200m – all under withering enemy fire – but he had been fatally wounded. Corporal Hayden received the Military Cross – the first ever awarded to an RAF airman. With brief account of the action. Image Size: 61.5 x 38.0 cms. Limited Edition of 450 prints.

Price: £40.00

HABBANIYA - 2 MAY 1941 By Stuart Brown

The picture is a greyscale sketch version of the oil painting lithograph shown above, and was the Artist's preliminary work for the original. The print, printed on 350gsm art board, measures 405mm x 304mm and is designed to fit a ready-made 30.5cms x 40.5cms (12in x 16in) frame. This picture is sized and priced ideally as a farewell or commemorative presentation item. With brief description of the action. Image size: 32.4cms x 20.5cms. Limited Edition of 200 prints. Limited Stock.

Unframed Price: £15.00

Framed price: £35.00 + Postage & Packing

"TWO-ONE DELTA – AIRFIELD SECURE" By David Rowlands

Commissioned to commemorate the Corps' 60th Anniversary in 2002, the picture shows deployed RAF Regiment Field and Rapier short-range air defence capabilities deployed during the Iraq Wars of the 1990s and is a general overview of the Corps based in a desert location. Stocks of this picture are very limited and sales are thus subject to availability. Priced ideally as a farewell or commemorative presentation item. Image Size: 58.0 x 34.5 cms.

Free copy provided with any purchase of two other full-size prints, while stocks last.

Price: £15.00
